COMPETITIONS.

TO ARCHITECTS, SURVEYORS, AND OTHERS.

THE Committee of the Royal Kent Dispensary will meet at the [illegible] Hall, Blackheath, on [illegible], the 20th day of [illegible], to [illegible] Offices, to be [illegible] PREMISES, [illegible] SURGERY, with necessary fences, and all necessary conveniences, and Architects are invited to send in a plan, if executed in the Greenwich-road, the cost of which must not exceed £1,000, which completed, and finished in the most complete manner, and no extras whatever afterwards to be permitted. The party producing the most approved plan will be awarded the sum of £5. and the second best premium or the Committee are authorised that the same is to be executed within the means specified in their estimate.

The two Plans, &c. selected to become the property of the Committee, and no other payment or allowance will be made in respect of the selected or any other plan or plans, specifications or estimate, or for any outlay, expense, or charges of any kind in connection therein, except one of the parties proposing them shall be appointed as the architect, in which case the customary commission of £5. per cent. on the outlay will be allowed. The Committee do not consider themselves bound to act upon or adopt any one of the plans, or to employ as architect either of the parties proposing them, whether his or their plan or plans be selected or not. If the person whose plan may be selected shall be employed as the architect to superintend the erection of the proposed Building, no premium will be paid to him in respect of his plans.

The plans or designs to be sent to the undersigned, on or before Saturday, the 22nd day of May next, under a motto and number, accompanied by a sealed letter, by which the author may be identified with his plan; but which letter will not be opened unless the plan is selected.

A sketch or plan of the ground, with particulars of the accommodation required in such Dispensary, may be seen and obtained on application to the undersigned, at his Offices, at Greenwich, on any day (Sunday excepted) between Ten and Four o'clock.

By Order, CHARLES J. CARTTAR, Secretary.
